1 . . Greene, John R. Patterson, Eann A. Yates and John R. Yates, ... "But in all of those big Highly efficient carrier-free visible light-driven water oxidation using a semiconducting BiVO₄ photocatalyst with a large gap between the O and V valence bands. We report an understanding of the carrier-free photoassisted water-splitting reaction, in which the BiVO₄ photocatalyst is effectively excited by visible light to achieve highly efficient oxygen evolution. The resultant photocatalyst system exhibited excellent response to visible light with a photocatalytic activity of 2.7 μmol h⁻¹ g⁻¹ for pure water splitting, in which the photocatalytic water oxidation reaction was enhanced approximately 10 times as compared with previous reports. Since a clear semiconductor-to-semiconductor band gap was derived from the absorption spectra, the carrier-free photoassisted water-splitting reaction is accelerated through the generation of carriers by visible light absorption. Many Republicans have been arguing for years that it is time to rein in the Federal Reserve and revamp the stability of the financial system. House Financial Services Committee Chairman Jeb Hensarling (R-TX) is one of the best candidates to be a leading advocate for banking reforms. He has the experience and the knowledge to advance the effort to reform Wall Street. Hensarling served on the House Financial Services Committee from 2001 to 2006, and has worked as an attorney at the Wall Street law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. Before entering Congress in 2011, he was the chairman of the Harris County Tax Assessor's office for three years. His work as a lawyer for a large law firm gave him insight into the workings of Wall Street and his experiences in the position as Tax Assessor's chief legislative coordinator influenced the way Hensarling understood the important role of regulation and supervision. Hensarling voted against the Wall Street bailout, despite the fact that he was a partner at Gibson Dunn. In 2010, Hensarling worked to ensure accountability and reform in the Federal Reserve, and said it was "absolutely insane" to "drive a 50-ton truck through the economy". Since then, Hensarling has been a consistent and ardent critic of Fed policy, calling it "monstrous".

In an article last month, Hensarling said that the Federal 3e33713323
