Max Weinberg: 'I'm All Over Tonight' On tonight's episode of WWE NXT, Max Weinberg made his in-ring debut, and he made an immediate impact. He ran down The Club from outside the ring and sent them each on their way. The next day, his demeanor changed from one of bravado to one of apprehension. "I'm in the ring. I felt good. I did what I wanted to do," he told Wrestling Inc. on our WINCLY podcast. "I want to learn, I want to be a better wrestler every day. I don't want to be defined by being a musician or a family man. I want to prove that I can do it. I'm going to prove that I can do it. I want to work with the best coaches. I want to learn something new every day, and right now, it's wrestling, but I want to do it all." The Evolution of Wrestling One of the reasons WWE NXT is so hyped is because of some of the talent that is on the show. One such example is Max. He came off as a much more "normal" guy in the ring than in his music videos, and he has the potential to make a name for himself on the wrestling scene. On the other hand, the Evolution of Wrestling stars of his NXT run will be known for more than just their music videos. It's wrestling. "This is wrestling. I can't go to concerts. I can't go to the movies. It's a sport, it's entertainment," he explained. "That's the way I feel about it. I'm a musician. I'm not a wrestler. I'm in that universe but my job is to entertain, to do what I do. The [NXT] world was great, a great place to get out of that dream world. It was beautiful." That life of perfection took a turn when he was signed to the WWE and traveled down to Florida on Monday nights in the house. "I've never walked down 14th Street in any major city," he said. "I would never be able to go there. I would never be able to go to 'Frenchy's' or 'Snooter's' or 'Sugar Ray's.' I would never be able to do any of that. I would never even know what it was like to go there." He had signed

What's New In?

Ada Kingan-Kay Ada Kingan-Kay (born ) is a Nigerian nurse, businesswoman and politician who is the incumbent Member of the House of Representatives for Adamawa North/Lafia/Zamfara Federal Constituency in Nigeria's House of Representatives representing All Progressive Congress. Family Ada Kingan-Kay is the daughter of Hon. Ahmed Kingan-Kay, a son of the former leader of Nigeria's main opposition party, the All Progressives Congress (APC), Ben Ali Gana, and wife Maute. Kingan-Kay is from Dutse, Adamawa State and she is a registered nurse, working in Garki Government Hospital in Minna. Ada is the fourth of his seven children and first daughter. Kingan-Kay was recently quoted by BBC News stating her stand on women's right to vote. She said, "To be frank, I am a Christian; you see, I believe that God has promised to bless those who have a good character and I believe that we should honour our mothers, men and women who are always looking out for us and not make them uncomfortable. So I can vote, if God has blessed me, I can." She added that her mother was very supportive of her running for elected office, which is a feat for an educated woman in the predominantly Muslim northern states in Nigeria. Kingan-Kay is also a descendant of the Most Worshipful King Hassan I of Morocco. Education Kingan-Kay went to primary school at the St Mary's School in Maiduguri, Borno State, Nigeria, before proceeding to the University of Port Harcourt. Kingan-Kay studied commerce and business administration at Rivers State University of Science and Technology from 1999 to 2001 and then studied nursing at the University of Port Harcourt. Kingan-Kay was admitted into the Nigerian Nursing and Midwifery Council in 2002 and became a registered nurse in 2009. Career Kingan-Kay works in the emergency department at Garki Government Hospital in Minna. Political career Kingan-Kay won Adamawa North/Lafia/Zamfara Federal Constituency in May 2019 parliamentary election. She polled 4,419 votes to defeat Hadeji Abdullahi Kunur, son of Alhaji Kunur Lulani Falade, by about 7,000 votes. Kingan-Kay is the first woman elected to Adamawa State
