At the centre of a raging controversy, the party is set to form the government in West Bengal. Its achievement comes against the backdrop of a major offensive against the state-wide protests spearheaded by the Congress, which is seeking to give West Bengal the status of a 'disturbed state'. Mamata Banerjee's party won 39 of the 42 seats in the Lok Sabha elections. In West Bengal, the battle is between the two main protagonists of the state's development and democracy: the ruling TMC and the Congress. Mamata Banerjee and the TMC are firm allies. Her party swept all the 42 Lok Sabha seats in West Bengal. On Friday, the leader of the opposition (LoP) Rahul Gandhi's comment that the BJP and its governments in Bengal and Uttar Pradesh are "shameless" and "soulless" is likely to further inflame the tension in the state. The BJP has aligned with it ally - the CPI (M) - and other regional parties to prevent the TMC from coming to
