Android Bulk SMS sending has never been easy on Android. Now you can do it with ease with Growl. With Growl installed on your PC, you can now easily send SMS from your Android device to your PC. No extra apps or drivers are needed on your PC and there is no need for an extra phone number. Growl is completely free and has no ads. Bulk SMS on Android means you can send/receive SMS with up to 500 contacts to/from your Android device via PC. Bulk SMS only sends SMS to a pre-determined number, and does not use up your SMS sending allowance on your mobile phone. You will be able to receive and reply to SMSs on your PC and your Android device will be able to send SMSs using your PC. Send SMSes to any number globally using the same SMS facility as your mobile phone. Send SMSes to multiple numbers within a selected group in bulk. You can send SMS to any group you want, including individual contacts. Also, while sending SMSes you can select which recipient should receive them, and adjust priority, whether to send a 2-way SMS, simply SMS or nothing at all. To send SMSes from Android to PC, simply enter SMS lists, enter text messages, select recipient numbers and click send. It's just a
